

HE COULDN'T LOVE YOU ANY MORE

Chorus

He couldn't love you any more
He wouldn't love you any less
It doesn't matter if your good at being good
Or busy tryin' to impress
It doesn't matter if you're good at being bad
Turnin' your life into a mess
He couldn't love you any more
He wouldn't love you any less

The Father's love it can't be bought
The price has all been paid
There's nothing left for you to try to do
A life of love and liberty is yours
If you believe in Him
Who died upon the cross in place of you

Repeat Chorus

He takes us just the way we are
He knows that we can't change
Without His help we're staying just the same
But when we give our lives to Him by faith
He fills us with the power
To live a life that's free from guilt and shame

Repeat Chorus

Repeat last line twice

Words & Music by Alan Mills © 2000

Hill City Music

This song is copyright only in that it cannot be copied for commercial purposes.
However, it would bless the writer greatly to see it copied and distributed freely for personal or corporate usage to anyone who is spiritually hungry or thirsty.